Exam Day Expectations

1. Hand in your textbooks or their replacement value at least 20 minutes before the exam is scheduled to begin. In the event that the textbook or the replacement fee has not been received you may not write the exam.
2. Check the white board outside the gym to see which row(s) have been designated for your exam.
3. Be sure to have extra pens, and in math pencils, geometry set and calculator.
4. Upon the announcement enter the gym without talking and find a seat in the designated row for your exam.
5. In the exam room gum, food and drinks are not permitted with the exception of bottled water. There is to be absolutely no talking in the gym.
6. The school dress code will of course be in effect during examinations.
7. After teacher announcements and prayer you may begin your exam. You have two hours to complete your exam. In the event that you are finished early you may leave provided the supervising teaching has announced that the one hour minimum time has elapsed. Students will not be allowed to leave the exam room unless its an emergency. If an emergency arises, a teacher will accompany the student out of the exam room.
8. Upon completion you may quickly go to your lockers but loitering in the halls is not permitted. After your exam you are encouraged to go home and study for your next exam. If you are unable to find a ride home you may study in the lounge or library.
9. The library is a designated quiet study area.
